2013 VALEDICTORY LECTURE

by

Professor Adedoyin Soyibo

Distinguished Service Fellow
Department of Economics
University of Ibadan

The valedictory lecture series is a public lecture programme designed to honour retiring or serving bankers and academics who have made immense contributions and distinguished themselves within the banking and finance profession. The programme affords such category of professionals an opportunity to share their experiences and offer advice and suggestions where necessary.

Professor Adedoyin Soyibo, pioneer Director of the M.Sc. (Banking and Finance) Programme, Department of Economics, University of Ibadan has for many years contributed immensely to the education and knowledge acquisition of many bankers within and outside the banking industry.

The lecture is expected to attract key players in the banking and finance industry, top public officials, foreign diplomats, the academia and executives of the organized private sector.
